Father's Chances of Not Being Drafted Are Slim

—Washington

Washington, June 10 — (AP) — A draft — the father's chances of being inducted into the armed forces before next year appeared today to be about 17 out of 100.

And the chances next year may be even lower unless heavy casualties require unexpectedly large replacements.

Farmer fathers generally will be deferred for occupational reasons, but the outlook for others sums up like this on the basis of latest War Manpower Commission selective service figures:

Drafting of those with children born before last Sept. 15 is not expected to begin before Aug. 1, and even if it starts then it is unlikely to become general and heavy for another month at least.

There are nearly 6,000,000 draft age (non-farm) fathers — only about 4,000,000 of them at most could be expected to be physically acceptable — and the armed services will take in but about 1,500,000 men in all between Aug. 1 and Jan. 1, 1944.

Toward making up this 1,500,000 the services get around 70,000 of the 100,000 becoming 18 years old each month, and should need 350,000 from this source from August, not counting the youths past 18 who were deferred to the end of the school year.

At least 150,000 more inductees will come from the ranks of single or childless married men, especially as occupational deferment expires for men in that class and the drafting of fathers increases pressure to get men without children out of the shops and into uniform.

With 500,000 or more inductees available from other classes, only 1,000,000 fathers at most will be needed in the ranks, although perhaps twice as many may be called for physical examinations.

The outlook for 1944 naturally is less certain, but if 150,000 men monthly would provide enough replacements for casualties on and off the battle field — a fair allowance in the eyes of some military men — the draft picture would fill out like this:

To meet the 12-month requirement of 1,800,000 men, there should be about 850,000 youths newly turned 18 plus a sizeable group of childless men with occupational deferments expiring from week to week, leaving a gap of less than one million to be made up by fathers.

In addition, women taken in by the services count as much toward making up the total strength as do men and, with commanding officers calling for more WAACS, WAVES and SPARS as the women prove their capability, the number of women in uniform is expected to grow steadily.

Capital Man Faces Murder Charge

Little Rock, June 10 — (AP) — Prosecutor Sant Robinson filed a charge of first degree murder in Circuit Court today against C. E. Bradshaw, Little Rock cafe operator, for the black-jack slaying last week of Seaman Robert B. Dexter, Multnomah, Mass.

Police reported Bradshaw and four seamen were engaged in a melee in Bradshaw's establishment last Saturday night. Dexter died in a Camp Robinson Hospital several hours later from a head injury.

Bradshaw originally was arrested on an assault charge. This was changed to second degree murder with Dexter's death and to first degree murder by Robinson today. Robinson said the restaurant operator would be brought to trial June 22.

Alarming Situation

Knoxville, Tenn. — (AP) — The clock shortage hereabouts was climaxed when Harold Miller reported to police his home was broken into, with only his alarm clock stolen.

Thirty Entered in Women's Tourney

Fort Smith, June 10 — (AP) — Early arrivals for the Arkansas Women's Golf Association Invitational tournament at Hardscrabble Country Club this week end indulged today in pre-competition practice rounds.

Already on hand were Jane Whitmore, Little Rock, the defending champion, and Alice Daniels of Tulsa. Mrs. Karl Porter Willard of Fort Smith, association president, said about 30 entrants were expected.

Qualifying play will be tomorrow. The first two rounds will be played Saturday, the semifinals and finals Sunday.

Curtin Says Allies to Go on Offensive

Canberra, Australia, June 10 — (AP) — Prime Minister John Curtin indicated today that the time is approaching when the Allies' strategy of defensive warfare in the Southwest Pacific may give way to a policy of limited and perhaps full-scale attack upon the Japanese.

"The holding war imposed on us under circumstances of great difficulty has been an obligation under global strategy which has been discharged," Curtin declared.

"The pressure on this country is to be thrown back on the enemy."

The prime minister's declaration was part of a formal statement issued on the basis of his meetings at Sydney June 7 with General Douglas MacArthur, Allied commander-in-chief in this theater of war.

The two conferred twice during the day — which Curtin described as a "good day" from the viewpoint of Australia. An announcement of the meeting made today in parliament said MacArthur and Curtin surveyed the outlook for the southwestern Pacific campaign in the light of general strategy agreed upon at Washington recently by Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt.

Curtin said in his statement he did not believe "the enemy can now invade this country." In support of this belief, he cited the resources now available to the Allies in the south sea Pacific and the command of the United States Navy by the gallant victories at Midway Island and in the Solomons Islands.

Stimson Brands Immorality Rumor False

Washington, June 10 — (AP) — Secretary of War Stimson said today that "sinister rumors aimed at destroying the reputation of the WAACS through tales of immorality are absolutely and completely false."

"I refer," Stimson said at a press conference, "to charges of immorality and particularly to the allegation that the War Department has agreed to the issuance of contraceptives and prophetic equipment to the members of this corps."

He added that "anything which would interfere with their recruiting or destroy the reputation of the corps and, by so doing, interfere with increase in the combat strength of our Army, would be of value to the enemy. The repetition of this corps' less-than confidence in it and is actually an aid to the enemy."

The strength of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, Stimson said, has reached 65,000, releasing soldiers for front-line duty to the extent of four combat divisions.

"As a yardstick," he added, "our combat ground force in the Tunisian campaign consisted of just four divisions."

"The authorized strength of this corps is 150,000 and since the objective behind the enlistment of the corps is to relieve able-bodied soldiers for combat duty, you can well see that we are speaking now of a sizeable increase in our fighting forces."

No Acts Filed for Election Ballot

Little Rock, June 10 — (AP) — All acts of the 1943 legislation enacted referendum action which would have held them in abeyance until the 1944 general election. Deadline for filing referendum petitions expired last midnight.

No general election ballot has been bare of a referred legislative act since the initiative and referendum amendment became effective in 1925.

Piecemeal Pact Splits UMW's Solid Front

—Washington

Washington, June 10 — (AP) — Secretary Lyles said today that miners who participated in the June 1-7 walkout from government-operated pits would be fined in accordance with their contracts, which usually provide penalties of $1 per day if a miner fails to work without good reason.

Lyles acted as federal boss of the mines.

Most of John L. Lewis' 530,880-odd United Mine workers were out from June 1 through June 5 making them liable for fines of $5 each for the five days absence from the mines. Under the second act the penalty money goes to selected charities.

Lyles, adding that fines would again be levied if another walkout takes place before or after the present three ends at midnight, June 20, declared that before last week's walkout "we told the miners we were going to fine them if they went out again."

The fines he said, will be taken out of the next day envelopes issued to the miners since he reported their latest wage payments already had been made when the walkout started June 1.

Although the UMW contends no contract was in force after midnight May Wickes said the terms of the contract because he had declared in taking over the mines for the government April 1 that the contracts were being extended indefinitely pending agreement on a new contract.

The government mine boss declared at a press conference to say whether he would recommend an increase in price ceilings which reportedly would be called for to put into effect a tentative agreement on a new contract by Lewis and home Pennsylvania soft coal operators.

By The Associated Press
Washington, June 10 — (AP) — One group of coal operators broke from the deadlocked Appalachian joint wage conference today and made a separate peace with John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers.

The agreement, between the Central Pennsylvania Producers Association, employing 65,000 men, and the U.M.W., was reported to call for a wage boost of $1.30 a day for underground travel time. Lewis originally sought $2.

This sudden development tossed more confusion into the already complicated wage negotiations, which were described by "farceful" by each side accused the other of being stubborn.

The piecemeal pact was affirmed last night by both Lewis and Charles O'Neill, spokesman for Northern Operators who in this case was acting only for the central Pennsylvania group.

Lewis said he was ready to offer the same terms to the other operators, employing 450,000 men. The labor chief said he believed they could accept unless "there is political and financial interference."

Divorced Wife of Col. Barton Held

Dallas, June 10 — (AP) — Mrs. Nora Barton, 64, in a hospital here with bullet wounds in her head is charged with the slaying of her girlhood friend, Mrs. W. M. Upshaw, 60, of Teague, Texas.

Detective Jack Archer and assistant District Attorney Newton Kennedy signed a complaint yesterday before Justice of the Peace W. L. Sterett, accusing Mrs. Barton of the fatal shooting which occurred near the sixth-floor elevator in a hotel here.

Mrs. Barton, divorced wife of Col. T. H. Barton, president of the Lion Oil Company of El Dorado, Ark., was quoted by detectives as having said "I'm in ill health."

Detectives said the weapon was a .38-caliber revolver.

The women came to Dallas from Teague Tuesday Friends at Teague said Mrs. Barton had come there from Little Rock, Ark., about a month ago for a visit with Mrs. Upshaw. Mrs. Barton planned to make her home here.

Treasury Gives Revenue Plan to Byrnes

Washington, June 10 — (AP) — The treasury was reported reliably today to have presented to War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes a comprehensive program to raise the $16,000,000 in additional revenue requested by President Roosevelt as a check against inflation.

The treasury program was said by informants, who withheld the use of their names, to center on a spending tax and to include suggestions for increasing individual and corporation income taxes and new excise levies.

Byrnes, who has indicated his intention to take a leading part in formulating future tax policies, met today with Randolph Paul, general counsel of the treasury; Harold D. Smith, director of the budget; and Fred M. Vinson, newly appointed director of the Office of Economic Stabilization.

The announced purpose of the conference was to discuss an impending statement to be issued by President Roosevelt when he signs the pay as you go tax bill, but Byrnes also told reporters he was interested in discussing "where we are to go from here, in the matter of taxation."

Adkins to Plea for Flood Area Aid

Little Rock, June 10 — (AP) — Governor Adkins will make a personal plea in Washington June 24 for financial aid to the flood-stricken counties of western Arkansas.

He announced last night he would go to the capital from the capital from the national governor's conference in Columbus, O., June 20 - 23.

Adkins is chairman of a 20-member committee which met at the statehouse today to prepare data on losses in the Arkansas delta of this state. The material will be forwarded to the state's congressional delegation for a direct appeal to President Roosevelt for funds and manpower to replant crops and repair bridges and highways.

The alien — combat crews — came to replace men who have completed their required quota of raids against the enemy air base at Munda on the New Georgia island in the central Solomons of the South Pacific and said also that known enemy losses on Attu Island in the Aleutians now stand at 1,845 men killed and 20 taken prisoner.

Washington, June 10 — (AP) — The Navy reported today a new air attack against the enemy air base at Munda on the New Georgia island in the central Solomons of the South Pacific and said also that known enemy losses on Attu Island in the Aleutians now stand at 1,845 men killed and 20 taken prisoner.

Washington, June 10 — (AP) — First Lieut. Robert W. Kennedy, son of Steele T. Kennedy, 2720 State Street, Little Rock, Ark., is missing in action in the European area, the War Department announced today in a casualty list of 250 United States soldiers missing in action.

AUXILIARY ELECTS
Little Rock, June 10 — (AP) — Mrs. Howard Morpheus, Stuttgart, was elected president of the Auxiliary of the Arkansas Pharmaceutical Association today, succeeding Mrs. Joseph Harris, foreman.

Other officers named at the annual convention were Mrs. Frank G. Ward, Hope, secretary — treasurer; and Mrs. Jack Holmister, Little Rock, parliamentarian.

U.S. Airforce Doubles Size in England

—Europe

London, June 10 — (AP) — The current summer will find the Eighth United States Air Force in England carrying its full share of the bomber offensive against Germany with multiple daylight raids. Major-General Ira C. Eaker, its commander, disclosed today.

Eaker told a press conference that the American heavy bomber force had doubled in size since March and would approximate the RAF's bomber strength by the end of the summer.

He said the American Flying Fortresses and Liberators would continue their precision raiding in daylight with relatively small individual forces rather than adopting the British mass raiding technique by night or day.

Eaker's disclosure followed a statement from a reliable source here that a unit of Flying Fortresses had been assigned to undertake night bombing experiments from Britain with the RAF.

Meanwhile, Eaker said, American fighter and medium bomber forces in England also are growing rapidly and will be ready to play a full part in supporting Allied troops in an invasion of Europe.

American bomber losses for May were under four percent, Eaker said. During the month more than 1,600 heavy bombers raided the continent, including those that were twice or more, and dropped 2,800 tons of bombs on 19 targets. Sixty-two of the big planes were lost, but they shot down 350 enemy craft and probably destroyed 93 more.

American fighter forces made about 2,300 sorties, Eaker disclosed, losing nine planes while destroying or damaging 25 Axis craft.

Eaker said that while Fortress crews are being trained in night flying to add flexibility to their tactics their main job will continue to be done by daylight.

The American air commander said that the new P-47 Thunderbolt fighter was proving itself in combat over the continent and that it was greatly boosting the confidence of fighter pilots.

Medium bombers also are arriving in large numbers from the United States, Eaker said. Their chief role ultimately will be to support the invasion of Europe, he added, and their crews now are being trained for that purpose. Their training will be thorough and complete "before the land battle starts," Eaker said.

Explaining the recent lull in the major bombing attack on Europe from England, Eaker said that in the air force, as in the Army and Navy, it is necessary to replace losses and to regroup forces after heavy battles, such as those fought in May.

He added that the initiative now is in the hands of the Allied and that they are able to pick the times when they can launch attacks "under conditions most desirable to us and most embarrassing to the enemy."

A recent contingent of American airmen who have arrived in Great Britain fully trained to service and fly the rapidly increasing fleet of United States Army Air Force planes here is believed to have been one of the largest ever shipped abroad.

Milk Looms As Ration Possibility

Sacramento, Calif., June 10 — (AP) Milk may be the next commodity to be rationed, a federal authority disclosed today.

The War Food Administration (WFA), the Office of Price Administration and the dairy industry are studying ways of limiting civilian consumption of milk, expecting a decline in supplies later this year, said T. G. Stitts, chief of dairy and poultry in the WFA.

Stitts, in a speech prepared for delivery before the California Dairy Council, said food officials had concluded that the government must curtail consumption of fluid milk or cut down on the manufacture of such products as butter, cheese, evaporated and dried milk. The latter alternative was said to be out of the question because manufactured products now meet only essential military and civilian needs.

Lampedusa, Off Italy, Hit; No Hint of Invasion

—Africa

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, June 10 — (AP) — Allied Air Forces, steadily whittling away at Axis resistance on the Mediterranean outposts, have executed new air assaults on bomb-scarred Pantelleria and Sicily in connection with a scouting raid by the U.S. Commandos against Lampedusa, tiny Italian island 60 miles south of the invasion stepping stone of Pantelleria, and fired with light casualties after completing their mission, a headquarters communique said.

(A British naval communique issued yesterday at Malta said light surface forces had carried out a coast reconnaissance of the island Sunday night. London sources at the time difference, were inclined to believe the two announcements referred to a single amphibious operation.)

Two field guns and a number of machine guns were said to have engaged the Commando patrol Monday night. The landing party returned to British vessels off shore, all of which escaped damage.

Allied air forces blasted Pantelleria yesterday for the 18th successive day, and a Ciario announcement said American heavy bombers ranged across the Mediterranean to attack air fields at two points on Sicily, Gerbini and Catania.

Twelve enemy planes were reported shot down on the Pantelleria raids and at least three by the American fliers from middle-east bases. One Allied plane was lost over Pantelleria.

The strength of the Pantelleria assault was not disclosed, but it was understood the Allied command announced a special communique yesterday, "until it collapses the Italian outpost," which was the Italian outpost, which yesterday needed an Allied demand for surrender of Pantelleria, declared today from the Rome radio.

Each hour goes by we await the enemy at Pantelleria. We are ready and waiting."

From their middle-east air bases, RAF long-range fighters again swept across to the Aegean sea, where they sank two sailing vessels, left another sinking and a fourth on its side, badly damaged. Three smaller vessels were attacked.

A final interpretation of reconnaissance photographs taken over the La Spezia naval base, said decks of one of Italy's Littorio class battleships apparently were damaged by the Flying Fortress attack there Saturday.

Identification marks on the deck had disappeared.

A Dispatch from the Fortresses base Saturday night said the 30,000-ton battleships Littorio, Vittorio Veneto and Roma had been damaged by his and near misses of demolition, fragmentation and incendiary bombs.

Fifty Liberators made up in American formations from the Middle East Command which struck by daylight at the Tyrrhenian airmen, it was announced in Cairo.

Col. John R. (Killer) Kane, Shreveport, La., the leader, said dispersal areas at both Gerbini and Catania were cleared by the bursts of more than 250,000 pounds of demolition, fragmentation and incendiary bombs.

Flying in two waves, the Liberators encountered about 25 Axis fighters, both Messerschmitt 109s and Macchi 205s. Two Messerschmitts and one Macchi were shot down and others probably were destroyed.

Pantelleria Raids Preliminary to European Invasion

Analysis of the News by Mackenzie

Editorial Comment Written Today and Moved by Telegraph or Cable.

DEWITT MacKENZIE

Whether the volcanic island fort of Pantelleria has been occupied by Allied forces, as is rather widely reported in some quarters, or not, the fact remains that preliminary to invasion of this small isle but of Europe as a whole already are under as in the case of an offensive on land, intensive bombardment of enemy positions is the order of the hour when the "over the top" is the thorough advance preparation, the easier and less costly final assault.

We are in process of ironing the Axis, and in this sense the iron of the continent actually under way.

However, I think we shall do well to let our blood pressure run too high in anticipation of results in the larger fields.

It should be remembered that amphibious operations are likely to be much more difficult than land attacks carried out entirely on land. Landing operations may result in a terrible loss of life, ships and materiel unless most careful preparations are made. That fact undoubtedly will be a great factor in guiding the plans of the Allied High Command.

Of course, the possibility of a considerable lapse of time before major invasions occur doesn't necessarily mean that we shall not see some fairly quick action. It's possible that Pantelleria and Lampedusa and even the bigger Italian islands of Sicily and Sardinia might come under assault by landing forces at any time. Still, it seems fairly obvious that the Allied command is proceeding methodically and doesn't intend to be rushed.

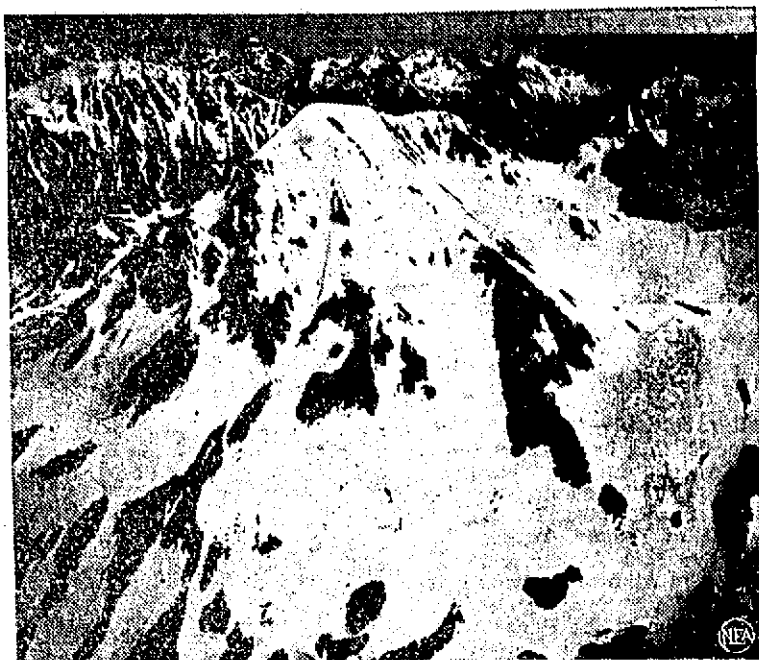

British Prime Minister Churchill says it is evident that amphibious operations of a peculiar complexity and hazard on a large scale are approaching. "That's good news, and not unexpected, but you will note that he doesn't say when the zero hour will be. That storm may be a tiny cloud - dot on the horizon as yet."

Probably the prime minister doesn't know when the major action will take place. It must depend on developments. It might come quickly and it might drag on for months.

Just to illustrate what I mean, probably a great deal will depend on what happens along the Russian front. If Hitler should launch a great offensive suddenly, that might easily send the Allied invasion machine into high gear. We then should have the all highest between two fires. In other words, while the Allied strategy is directed along very certain lines, the hour to hour tactics of the fighting front must be controlled by circumstances.

So far as concerns Pantelleria, that small but powerful Italian fortress stands right in the middle of the narrow channel between Sicily and the African mainland. It must be knocked out before Allied shipping can operate freely in those waters for the larger operations. Lampedusa, which lies not far from Pantelleria, also is a thorn in the side of water-borne traffic, although in a less degree. The great islands of Sicily and Sardinia are a particular menace to the narrow ship lane which runs between Sicily and Tunisia. For that reason it is logical to believe that the Allies will deal with them before proceeding to bigger problems.

Mountainous Attu

Beautiful but treacherous are the mountains of Attu where Americans are attacking Japs. Since sides of these volcanic peaks are too difficult to scale, our forces presumably advanced through passages between them. Enemy snipers hid in these hills to attack U. S. troops.

Finally, in considering the question of time, required for major amphibious operations, we mustn't overlook the vastness of the preparations required. It takes a huge fleet to move even a moderate sized army to the scene of action, and keep it supplied with munitions and food. It also demands great aerial and naval support.

Dry Forces Call for Elections

Little Rock, June 10 — (AP) — Referenda efforts are under way in eight counties and six towns by Arkansas dry leaders seeking to return the state to a bone-dry status under Initiated Act No. 1.

Clyde C. Coulter, Anti-Saloon League superintendent, said Pulton county would vote June 29 and petitions for local option elections were being circulated in Pike, Montgomery, Grant and Lawrence counties.

An election has been called in York township, Lonoke county, June 29, and petitions are being circulated in Harrison Township (Judsonia), White county; Lamar township (Plainview), Yell county; Prairie township (Charleston), Franklin county; McCrory, Woodruff county, and Magazine, Logan county.

Coulter said he would go to Malvern Sunday to distribute petitions for an election in Hot Spring county. A referenda movement also is under way in Clark county, he said.

Parachutes to Play Important Role in War

Parachutes will play an important role in the coming invasion of Europe.

Parachutes have been frequently used in North Africa and the Solomons to drop men, food and equipment behind enemy lines. Parachutes have been employed to obtain meteorological information. Parachute flares are used to light up enemy targets.

Col. Keith F. Adamson, commanding Southwestern Proving Ground, one of the field establishments of the Ordnance Department, Army Service Forces, revealed today that parachutes are now being used in conjunction with fragmentation bombs.

Block busters plunge to earth at maximum speed to blast enemy industrial, railroad, water power and port facilities. The parachute bomb is used for special missions. It drifts down slowly to explode accurately at any desired distance above the ground.

A cloud of fragmentation bombs has a particularly demoralizing effect upon the enemy.

Army Ordnance parachutes were originally made of high tenacity rayon. But this material entered the critical class and became increasingly difficult to obtain. There was not enough of it to supply all branches of the Army.

Ordnance engineers worked out a solution. Numerous field tests showed that semi-high tenacity rayon could be used satisfactorily. A serious bottleneck was therefore broken. Approximately twelve million pounds of high tenacity rayon was made available for other vital military uses. At the same time, by using a 56-inch loom, lavings of material made it possible to manufacture an additional 920,000 parachutes for 1943.

This summer, our enemies will be acutely sky-conscious. They will undoubtedly see strange clouds, strange clusters of deadly parachute fragmentation bombs.

Paragould Boy Cited by War Department

(Written by Technical Sergeant Jim G. Lucas, U.S.M.C., and distributed by the Associated Press)

Somewhere in the South Pacific — (Delayed) — Five Naval Medical Corpsmen who, serving with Marine troops in the South Pacific, risked their lives to aid wounded Marines in the landings on Gavutu last August 7, recently were cited here for meritorious conduct in action against the enemy.

They were Pharmacist Mates First Class Arthur E. Lemasters, Williamsburg, W. Va.; William F. Spears, Paragould, Ark.; Claude Creech, La Grange, N. C.; L. L. Linse, Springview, Neb., and Robert Lynos, Newark, N. J.

Formal presentation was made at a ceremony on the parade ground near here by the commander of Marine forces in the South Pacific.

In the case of Spears, the citation read: "While serving with a Marine battalion during the attack on Gavutu, Solomon Islands, August 7 and 8, Spears voluntarily accompanied patrols engaged in mopping up enemy positions in order to reach and aid the wounded. Though constantly exposed to heavy Japanese fire, he disregarded his own safety and demonstrated the highest degree of professional skill and courage under extremely adverse conditions. His action resulted in saving many lives, and contributed immeasurably to the general morale. His conduct was in keeping with the highest tradition of the United States Naval Service."

WOMEN WON'T TALK

BY RENE RYERSON MART

COPYRIGHT, 1943. NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Derek Grady has been found murdered on the grounds of Kraiktower. The police recognize him as a man wanted for kidnapping. Martha Kraik, adult, he was the grandson of her housekeeper, Margaret Grady, but was nothing about the eleven years ago of Derek and her granddaughter, Kathy. Considered married to Walter, Kathy's father, has been acting strangely.

THE THING

CHAPTER VIII

SLEEP chases a variety of gob-lins; by morning everything and everyone at Kraiktower seemed normal again.

Then Walter called. He was in the village.

John drove me to the station in the big car. Walter was impatiently striding up and down. He scarcely greeted me.

"What the devil did you mean yesterday not telling me anything, and the morning papers full of it?"

"Get in first," I ordered. On the way back to Kraiktower I told him all that had happened as far as I knew—or nearly all. I told him that Derek Grady had been killed within a stone's throw of our house, and that the coroner had fixed the time of death between 12 and 1 o'clock. But I didn't tell him that his wife had been absent from the dining room for five unaccounted minutes during that hour, or that we had only Kathy's own word for it that she was in her room at the time of the killing.

I didn't tell him either that I was afraid it was too far for a mere coincidence that Derek had turned up at Kraiktower the same day Kathy came down.

"You know what this means, Mother. It will be a picnic for the newspapers." He spread a crumpled copy of a morning paper out for me to see. There was Derek's picture and his name in the headlines.

The newspaper account gave Derek's address as that of his father's home. I reread the street and number, 410 Wheatland Avenue. There was something very familiar about it, but I couldn't think what.

"Next thing you know, the papers'll dig up that old affair between Kathleen and Derek," Walter growled.

CONNIE went all to pieces when she saw Walter. She cried all over his shoulder, and he took her upstairs and neither one of them came down until dinner.

I saw then that Connie had gone glamor girl on us. Her dinner gown was daring and she had knotted a gold scarf, a-glitter with sequins, over her shoulders and arms.

Walter didn't say anything serious until we reached the desert. Then he looked down the table at me.

"Connie's pretty much upset about this affair. I think we ought to call an attorney down, just in case."

"I wouldn't rush things if I were you, Dad," Kathy broke in. She was speaking to Walter but she looked straight at Connie. I didn't like the look on her face.

After a moment, I said slowly, "Call a lawyer, Walter, and the police will think we are guilty."

A better idea than that was forming in the back of my head. It would be only neighborly if I dropped in to call on Clint Matison. A man with a broken arm living alone is rather a helpless creature.

But there was more than charity back of my intended call. A writer of detective stories should know something about solving a crime.

After dinner I retired to my study on the pretense of reading and then slipped out. To reach the cottage in the woods on the other side, one has to take the path from the east terrace down to the lake and follow the shore to the place where the banks of the ravine flatten into the beach. There you can cross the creek on stepping stones.

hands, otherwise the least little roughness will wear your stockings thin long before they should show signs of wear. A pumice stone rubbed over the backs of the heels and an application of hand lotion after your bath each day will do the trick.

And when you find that there are a few odd stockings, none of which match in color to make a pair, dip them in a solution of color remover and then retint them all the same shade.

Finally, in pairing off stockings, make certain they match, for mismatched stockings can ruin the effect of your nicest ensemble.

In the new picture, "Jitterbugs," they constitute a two-man "Zoot Suit Band" — with instruments strung together like a Rubie Goldberg invention. The zoot suits they wear are only a little funnier than some of those still seen on the streets.

Now even cows are giving the movies the hard-to-get routine. The Bob Hope-Betty Hutton musical, "Let's Face It," has to go on location in a local dairy's big pasture for its cow scenes — and the company was warned that the ossies had better not be upset in the process.

Before the war, a good milk cow could be rented for pictures for 2.50 a day — including the milk.

King George Gets Around

London (AP) — King George VI is a monarch who believes in getting around. Since the outbreak of the war he has made 252 railway journeys totalling 36,000 miles.

He has made these wartime trips of inspection, in all kinds of weathers, and sometimes in air raids. Once when there was two feet of snow on the ground a royal baid and the royal train made a dash for the shelter of a tunnel.

The Soviet midnight communique said about 200 Germans were killed and guns, observation posts and an ammunition dump were smashed on the Smolensk front, while German positions were bombarded and a company of Germans was killed in fighting around Lishchansk, where the Germans have attempted to pierce Soviet positions on the Donets river.

Two companies of enemy infantry were slain, 21 blockhouses and dugouts were destroyed, and two ammunition dumps were blown on the Leningrad front, the war bulletin said. A skirmish with Finn troops, in which 40 of the enemy were killed, also was recounted in the midnight communique.

The cypress tree has knees, peculiar growths on the roots.

The charges mainly brought were said to represent only a fraction of the executions in that period.

General dissatisfaction and restlessness also were seen in the character of court convictions recorded in the press during May. There were 78 sentences for war crimes such as talking disparagingly about soldiers or the Nazi party, for spreading rumors of black marketing, and for plundering in blackouts.

Try These Three Clever Tricks To Cut Down Stocking Expense

DOLORES MORAN: pairs off odd stockings.

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Stockings, without a doubt, are about the biggest expense and problem in a woman's wardrobe.

But here are a couple of conservation tricks which film player Dolores Moran, of the new picture "Old Acquaintance," says makes her stock of stockings last weeks longer:

Never wear stockings more than once without washing them, for even the slightest perspiration left in the feet has a deteriorating effect.

Keep the backs of your heels as soft and smooth as you do your hands, otherwise the least little roughness will wear your stockings thin long before they should show signs of wear. A pumice stone rubbed over the backs of the heels and an application of hand lotion after your bath each day will do the trick.

Servicemen Barred From Dozen Points

Los Angeles, June 10 — (AP) — Nearly a dozen communities along the rim of far-flung Los Angeles were closed to U. S. seamen, Marines and Coast Guardsmen today after Navy officials expanded their out-of-bounds area in an effort to forestall future disorders between service men and zoot-suiters — classes which have drawn the attention of the State Department and the Mexican embassy.

Navy enlisted men — except when armed with special passes — have been barred from Los Angeles since the disturbances reached a climax Monday night, when 50 westerners of long coats and sausage-shaped trousers were disrobed by bands of soldiers and sailors who hold the zoot-suiters responsible for recent alleged beatings, robberies and indignities inflicted upon service men.

Outbreaks had dwindled to isolated cases in outlying areas last night, police reported.

Mayor Fletcher Bowron declared in a radio address that local governmental authority has not broken down.

Gov. Earl Warren, from Sacramento, urged law enforcement officers, citizens and service men to join in a movement to quell street fighting in which 500 zooters and some 150 persons have been injured in the past few days. The majority of the zoot-suiters arrested, police records show, have been youths of Mexican descent.

Mayor Bowron said the State Department informed him yesterday that its attention had been called to the situation by the Mexican embassy in Washington, after the embassy had received a report from the Mexican consul-general here.

In San Diego, groups of service men, numbering from a dozen to 300 or 400, roamed the downtown streets last night, on the lookout for zoot-suiters reported to be infiltrating from Los Angeles. More than 100 sailors and Marines stormed down a main street after several youths wearing the outlandish garb, but the zoot-suiters fled before fists began to swing.

Police Chief Clifford E. Peterson, of San Diego said he had received reports of Los Angeles zoot-suiters arriving there aboard vegetable and produce trucks.

Heroic Work of Russians Take Big Toll

Moscow, June 9 (P)—Dramatic acts of heroism have been performed night after night by Red Army pilots who have roared into the milky "white night" above Gorki to protect that vital munitions center from German raids. dispatches from that thrice-bombed city said today.

The dispatches, describing the third raid in five nights on the production plants 250 miles east of Moscow, said seven enemy bombers were shot down and that dwellings had been damaged.

(The Moscow dispatch did not say when the last raid was made, but German broadcasts recorded in London said the big "Molotov" tank factory there was last raided Monday night. Aerial reconnaissance had shown the factory "almost completely destroyed," and Monday night's raid completed the destruction, said the broadcast.)

Long-range Russian bombers retaliated immediately for the Gorki attacks, smashing at enemy airbases northwest of Bryansk where German planes, ammunition dumps and supplies were reported destroyed.

Land fighting along the vast front was confined to feeler stabs and softening up blows from heavy artillery as the opposing air forces continued to drive home blows expected to pave the way for the start of the 1943 offensives.

(The German high command asserted today Russian forces had suffered heavy losses in the lower Kuban during the past fortnight and indicated that fierce Soviet attacks were continuing there.)

(Its communique, broadcast from Berlin and recorded by the Associated Press, said that in addition to heavy losses in men, the Russians lost 100 tanks and 350 aircraft.

It said the Russians attempted to land forces behind the German lines yesterday, but that Nazi planes sank 47 Soviet landing boats off the east coast of the Sea of Azov.

(Neither the midnight nor mid-day Soviet communiques, which were recorded at London by the Soviet Monitor from Moscow broadcasts, mentioned fighting there.)

Another report of successful Soviet aerial battles came from the Leningrad front. A group of German JU-88's and HE-111's attacked in broad daylight, said front line dispatches, but Soviet pilots met the attack and shot down 22 Nazi planes.

No second chance...no other choice

FOR THOSE WHO FALL and freeze on the time-covered floors of the cattle cars that carry them to German labor camps—there is no other choice.

For the little children of Tepelini and Salonika and Athens who wait with swollen stomachs for the food ship that never arrives, there is nothing else to do—but wait.

For the Russian peasant with no choice but to burn his home before the Nazis reached it; for the Chinese of Nanking who suffered the terrorism of the Jap; for all of those in nameless graves and numberless cells—for all of them—there was no second chance, no other choice.

But for you—a choice still remains. For you—among all the peoples of the world, the road to freedom is still clear.

Never before have we been able to measure the price of freedom for ourselves and our children in such tangible terms. Will you help to keep the road to freedom open? Will you invest—all you can—in War Bonds?

It's not so much to ask. Many of us are making more money than we have for years. The things we'd like to buy with that money are scarce—or unavailable. So, we're asked to loan money at good interest—$4 for every $3 when the Bonds mature. Money to help pay for the war—keep prices down—provide peacetime jobs and peacetime goods and a generally decent world for all of us when the war is won.

Chances are you're already in the Payroll Savings Plan—buying War Bonds—doing your bit. But don't stop there. Raise your sights! Do your best!

Taking Games by Single Run Old Stuff to Cards

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The club that wins the one run games was the St. Louis Cardinals according to the old sages of the senior circuit.

This diverting aspect of victory came in for considerable attention last year as the St. Louis Cardinals started streaking down the home stretch. From early August till the end of the season the Red-birds played 15 games which were decided by one run and they won 14 of them.

The Cardinals still are playing their games tight and they still are winning most of them, although naturally enough their mark this spring doesn't compare with last autumn.

Discounting a pair of tie games, the Cardinals have had 24 of their 41 contests this season settled by one run and they have triumphed in 14 of the 24.

In comparison the Brooklyn Dodgers have played 18 games decided by one run and have lost 11 of them. Cincinnati has won 8 out of 15 in the same category.

The Cardinals had another one of these close contests yesterday, the day's only fracas in the National League, and they captured it in the manner to which they have become accustomed, 4-3 over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Mort Cooper and Rip Sewell, two of the league's leading pitchers, were paired on the mound and came up to the ninth inning with the score tied. Then, the Cards' speed got them the vital run.

Whitey Kurowski, playing for the first time since he hurt an eye on May 23, stretched a hard drive into a double to open the inning. Martin Marion was given an intentional walk. Cooper sacrificed. Lou Klein lifted a fly to leftfield and Kurowski raced home after the catch. Total for the inning — one hit, one run.

Kurowski also collected a triple and a single to score two of St. Louis' other three runs to help Cooper gain his seventh victory against three defeats.

This gave the Cards a half game margin over the second place Dodgers, who were kept idle by weather conditions.

In the American League the first place New York Yankees also were idle, but the Washington Senators lost ground nevertheless by dropping a 3-2 decision to the Boston Red Sox.

Jim Tabor and Tony Lupien hit home runs in the first inning to send Tex Hughson off in front and he continued to victory although giving eight hits to the six his teammates made off Dutch Leonard and Alex Carrasquel.

FOOT ITCH
ATHLETE'S FOOT

Beware of It Spreading
Often the disease travels all over the bottom of the feet. The soles of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse.

Get relief from this disease as quickly as possible because it is both contagious and infectious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crotch of the legs.

Why Take Chances?
The germ that causes the disease is known as Trichophyton. It buries itself deep in the tissues of the skin and is very hard to kill. A test made shows it takes 15 minutes of boiling to destroy the germ, whereas, upon contact, laboratory tests show that H. F. will kill the germ Trichophyton within 15 seconds.

H. F. was developed solely for the purpose of relieving Athlete's Foot. It is a liquid that penetrates and dries quickly. You just paint the affected parts. H. F. gently peels the skin, which enables it to get to parasites existing under the outer cuticle.

Relief Guaranteed OR MONEY BACK
At least 66% of the adult population of the United States are either attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

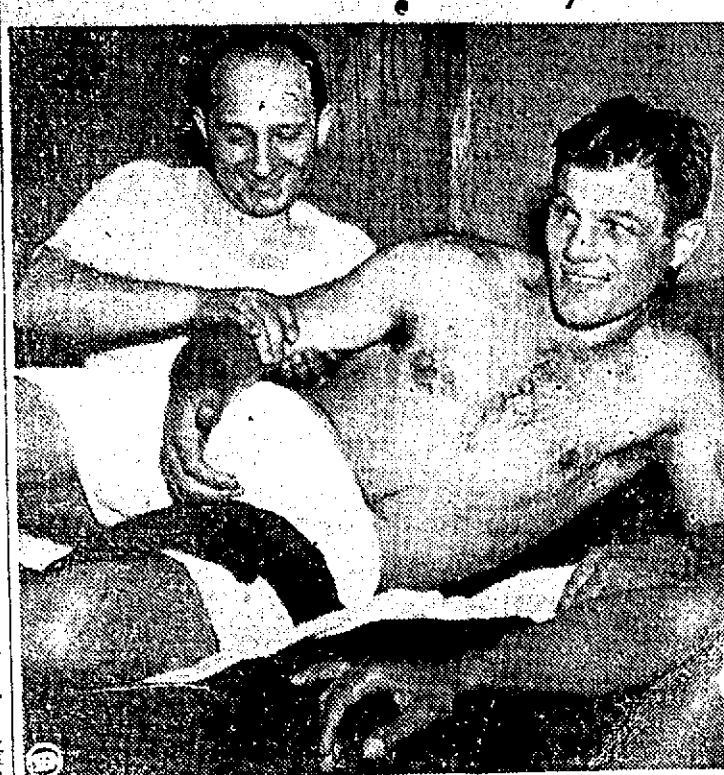

Usually the disease starts between the toes. Little watery blisters form, and the skin cracks and peels. After a while, the itching becomes intense, and you feel as though you would like to scratch all the time.

AT ALL GOOD DRUGGISTS

Itching Often Relieved Quickly
As soon as you apply H. F. you may find that the itching is relieved. You should paint the infected parts with H. F. night and morning until your feet are better. Usually this takes from three to ten days.

H. F. should leave the skin soft and smooth. You may marvel at the quick way it brings you relief. Don't wait for Athlete's Foot to become serious. Get H. F. today.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Columnist

New York June 10—(AP)—A roundup about the baseball Hall of Fame recently led Clyde McBride of the Kansas City Star to suggest that a lot of the old-time ball tot of the defeat.

"If Chadbourne, Phelon, Bulger, Sam Crane and others could come back," wrote McBride, "You would soon be knowing about early stars who played the game with all the daring and stamina and skill of the modern stars, but nevertheless baseball." . . . Well, there's one who doesn't have to come back. Hugh Fullerton, senior.

He doesn't rate himself as an old-timer yet, but he used to pal around with those guys and he can tell you plenty about the stars of the nineties and even before.

Matter of Opinion
The real "old timers" swore by such players as Jere Denny and Fred Pfeffer, star infielders of the 80's, and Mike "King" Kelly, colorful catcher who, in his day, probably was as famous as Babe Ruth.

Pop doesn't agree on these choices, nor does he agree entirely with the most recent baseball writers' ballot on which Frank Chance, Rube Waddell, Ed Walsh, Miller Huggins and Ed Delahanty came the closest of those who failed election. . . . Most of them will get plaques in the hall some day, he says, but some of the best players have been neglected or forgotten entirely.

Remember These Fellows?
There was Big Bill Lange, for instance, another player whose fame could be compared to Ruth's. He was a gigantic fellow who could hit terrifically and run 100 yards in 10.5 in his baseball uniform. . . . There was Ed Williamson, who "probably" was nearer to Wagner than any infielder I ever saw and he was going back then, and Herman Long of Boston, hailed as the developer of "inside" baseball. . . . there were some great pitchers — an unusual number of them, in fact — who have received few votes or none at all.

McBride, better known as an umpire, Tom "Toad" Ramsey or "Willie Bill" Hutchinson? . . . And did you ever hear of Charley Bennett, who caught for Detroit and Boston and led the league nine times in eleven years? Pop considers him a better receiver than Mickey Cochrane, who probably will be in the Hall of Fame after a few more elections, Johnny Kling or Lou Criger.

All-Star Infield
Taking them by positions, Hughie Senior, rates Hal Chase as the best first baseman, followed by Fred Tenney and Frank Chace. . . . at second he places Hall-of-Famers Larry LaJoie and Eddie Collins with Johnny Evers next. At short "you don't have to go further than Monus Wagner." But Williamson, also listed as a third baseman, had a little pre-game stunt of having two men hit grounders as rapidly as they could while he fielded them, moving in steadily until he was almost on top of the plate. . . . For third base Pop's picks are Jimmy Collins, Bill Bradley and Buck Weaver.

Sheep 1000; opening generally steady with Wednesday; good and choice native spring lambs 15.25-16.00; good clipped natives No. 2 pelt and averaging 8.50-15.00; shorn ewes largely 6.50-7.50.

NEW YORK STOCKS
New York, June 10—(AP)—Farm implement stocks and other selected industrials extended yesterday's late rally in today's market but many leaders failed to get along.

Gains of fractions to a point were well distributed in the forenoon. There were a few wider swings. Offerings then appeared and early plus marks were reduced or cancelled here and there near the close. It was notable, however, that dealings slowed as prices wavered. Volume of around 900,000 shares compared with 807,000 in the previous session.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS
Chicago, June 10—(AP)—Wheat declined today on selling inspired by a slightly lower loan rate on the 1943 crop than the more optimistic traders had expected. At one time the bread cereal was down about a cent but good support developed at that point and prices staged a mild rally.

Rye followed wheat, but oats displayed independent strength to move to new seasonal highs. The July contract was at a peak since 1928. Good cash demand and belief Canadian imports will slump brought in the buying. Realizing figure.

POULTRY AND PRODUCE
Chicago, June 10—(AP)—Poultry, live; 20 trucks; firm; prices unchanged at ceiling.

Demands Will Come Regardless of War
London—(AP)—Britain will continue to make heavy demands on even if victory is won before then, her farmers until at least 1947, R. S. Hudson, Minister of Agriculture, said in a speech.

"Last autumn," he said, "I asked for an additional 600,000 acres of wheat, and it has been achieved. I now confidently expect to get well over half as much again."

Britain's 1943 wheat acreage was more than double the 1939 figure.

Volunteer Team Leads Southern by 4 1/2 Games

By the Associated Press
A week ago today Birmingham was riding high and mighty, the pace - better in the Southern Association, Nashville was trailing one game behind after a nip and tuck battle that had seen the lead change hands as often as three nights in a row.

Today Nashville is but in front - four and half games ahead of the second - place club, which is not Birmingham, but Chattanooga. The Barons, who lost five of their last six games, are in fourth place just back of Little Rock.

The rampaging Nashville Vols began hitting the payoff slot just about the time the Barons started clipping, and have won eight games in a row.

In last night's games Nashville's Ed Sauer copped individual performance honors with two doubles, a triple and a home run in four trips to the plate. He drove in four runs and scored three times himself. The Vols humbled the last - place Memphis Chiefs, 9-1, with Wally Signer racking up his sixth victory.

Birmingham trotted four pitchers to the mound in a futile effort to silence the Atlanta bats, but wound up on the short end of a 4-0 count.

Knoxville evened its series with Little Rock at two - all by winning a 6-4 decision. A four - run barrage in the seventh inning was too much for Trav hurler Al Moran and Wayman Kerkiseck took his place. The Snokies' starting moundsman, Dick Coffman, gave way to a pinch - hitter, Cy Roberts, in the big seventh inning, and it was Roberts' single that set up the rally. Joe Powers took over the Knoxville mound duties, but got into trouble in the ninth and Herb Anderson finished the game. Coffman got credit for the win.

The New Orleans - Chattanooga get - together was postponed and a doubleheader will be played to night.

Today's games and probable pitchers:
Birmingham (Garnier) at Atlanta (Curtis) (doubleheader scheduled but other pitchers unannounced.)
Memphis (West) at Nashville (Lindsey).

New Orleans (Williams and Sanner or Horn) at Chattanooga (Wilson and Surratt (2).
(Only games scheduled.)
